

TURKEY REJECTS PEACE TERMS OF BALKAN ALLIES; ORDERS FIGHTING RESUMED

troops exhausted by their strenuous campaign.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The Bulgarian terms of peace are impossible, according to the Grand Vizier. He made this statement to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Constantinople at 10 A. M. to-day, before the terms were rejected. Kiamil Pasha said:

"I received last night communication through the Russian Ambassador of the terms which the Bulgarian suggest for an armistice as a preliminary to the discussion of the terms of peace.

"The terms are impossible and unless they are radically altered the war will continue.

"The Bulgarians ask for the surrender of Adrianople, Scutari, Janina and the Chatalja lines."

BULGARIANS FALL BACK TEN MILES ON FORT LINES.

Reliable eye-witnesses of the fighting on the Turkish left wing at Chatalja report that it appears to have resulted in the Bulgarians retreating along the road from Papsa Burgas toward the village of Chatalja, according to the report of the Daily News. One report says they fell back ten miles.

It appears, according to this correspondent, doubtful whether the enthusiastic descriptions by the Turkish press of victories on the right wing are reliable. The Turkish losses here have been admittedly heavy, but the arrival of troops from Syria has further strengthened the Turkish defense.

It is also evident that the supply and commissariat difficulties of the Ottoman army have been somewhat relieved. Wounded Turkish officers highly compliment the inspiring effect of the energy shown by Gen. Enver Huseini, who to whom some of them attribute a great part of the credit for the defense on the Turkish right wing.

It is clear that the Bulgarians have evacuated the positions facing the Hamidieh forts, according to the Times correspondent. The Turks followed the retreating Bulgarians with their artillery which has a longer range.

"I cannot understand the Bulgarian operations. Their withdrawal is possibly a feint, but if so why did they make such strenuous efforts to entrench themselves."

The correspondent suggests that the Bulgarians may have imagined they would have an easy path to Constantinople or perhaps the Bulgarian generals were ordered to make a demonstration without seriously committing their troops. He adds:

TURKS MASSSED IN STRENGTH AWAIT EVENTS.

"The Turks are massed in such strength on the Hamidieh Pasha lines that they look as though they would be able to resist indefinitely any attempt of the Bulgarians to approach them. It is the army's forward movement should continue as extended as it has been during the last few days. The Bulgarians have retired to the hills in the immediate vicinity of Chatalja village and the Turkish troops have reconquered some of the villages on the plain facing the Hamidieh forts. Whatever may be the importance of this movement it has acted as a strong tonic to the spirit of the Turkish troops."

Nasim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, in a further telegram to the Ottoman War Office to-day says: "According to reports just received Turkish reconnoitring parties have confirmed the report that the enemy had abandoned the trenches he had dug during the last three days facing the line of forts in the zone which he had occupied. The Bulgarians have fallen back at certain points as much as four and one-half miles from the Turkish lines. A number of wounded and many dead bodies were found in the Bulgarian trenches besides rifles, ammunition and other equipment."

The Bulgarian losses in dead and wounded during the fighting at Chatalja totaled 8,000, according to official advices telegraphed by a special correspondent from Constantinople to-day. Terrible damage was done to the Bulgarian column, which attacked the Turkish left wing, particularly by the shells from the Turkish warships. One of these fell on a Bulgarian ammunition train, which exploded, resulting in great loss of life.

BUDAPEST, Nov. 21.—The sound of guns at sea, heard at the Bosphorus to-day, according to a message from Constantinople. It could not be accounted for. Nasim Pasha reported to the Sultan to-day that the Bulgarians have fallen back four miles from the trenches outside and paralleling the Chatalja line of fortifications.

TURKISH CRUISER, OR TORPEDO BOATS OF BULGARIA DESTROYED?

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Nov. 21.—The Turkish cruiser Hamidieh is reported to have been blown up by Bulgarian torpedo boats near the port of Varna on the Black Sea. No confirmation of the report has been received at the War Office.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 21.—In an attack on the Turkish cruiser Hamidieh in the Black Sea early to-day two Bulgarian torpedo boats are asserted to have been sunk and two other torpedo boats badly battered. The Hamidieh is said to have escaped practically without damage.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR PRAISES BULGARIANS.

VIENNA, Austria, Nov. 21.—Emperor Francis Joseph expressed his admiration at the way the Bulgarian troops behaved during the war in the course of a speech to the Hungarian delegates at a banquet last evening. On the other hand, however, His Majesty declared he could not understand why the fortunes of war were so favorable to the Bulgarians. Referring to the dispatch of an Austro-Hungarian Consul official to investigate the situation at Plevna, the Emperor expressed the hope that the reports published regarding the Serbian treatment of the Austro-Hungarian Consul there, would prove exaggerated.

GREEKS CAPTURE TOWN OF FLORINA.

ATHENS, Greece, Nov. 21.—Greek troops have occupied the Turkish town of Florina, to the south of Monastir, and cut off the rear guard of the Turkish army retreating from Monastir after its capture by the Serbians.

FRANCE WARNS TURKEY AGAINST MASSACRES.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—France to-day notified the Turkish Government that she would hold Turkey responsible for any violence against Christians and asked her to adopt rigid precautionary measures to prevent any outbreaks.

France took this step in fulfillment of her duty as recognized protector of Christians in the Orient and as a respondent of the League of Nations. One report says they fell back ten miles.

It appears, according to this correspondent, doubtful whether the enthusiastic descriptions by the Turkish press of victories on the right wing are reliable. The Turkish losses here have been admittedly heavy, but the arrival of troops from Syria has further strengthened the Turkish defense.

It is also evident that the supply and commissariat difficulties of the Ottoman army have been somewhat relieved. # IF HE MARRIED HE DIDN'T KNOW IT, HE TELLS COURT

Had Some Drinks, Went to City Hall, Then Was Robbed, Youth Says.

Walter Carman was puzzled in the West Side Court to-day. He was there to make a complaint against a woman calling herself Mrs. Mabelle Carman, whom he accused of robbing him of his watch and chain in her flat at No. 269 West One Hundred and Fourth street, with the aid of two big, muscular men.

FORCED TO MAKE ADMISSIONS AS TO SOME LOANS

Robinson, thereupon, was forced to admit the Northern Bank had loaned O. J. Walsh, an employee of the Carnegie Trust Co. (and used as a dummy in making loans), $15,000 in August, 1910, and that he had taken the trust company stock as collateral for the loan, so that the bank would have lost that sum by the failure of the trust company. Robinson admitted that at that time he personally had borrowed $50,000 from the Carnegie Trust Company.

Mr. Steiner then took a new tack and asked when Robinson first knew he was indicted. The banker fixed the date as January, 1911, and could not be fixed to admit he had known of it earlier.

"You not," asked Steiner, "on Dec. 28, 1910, go to a sanatorium for the lungs conducted by Dr. Carlos McDonald, knowing that on that or the next day you would be indicted for grand larceny?"

Strenuous efforts of Mr. Steiner to continue this line of questioning were halted by Justice Goff, but not until the jury had heard the whole story of Robinson's flight to the sanatorium in an apparent effort to escape indictment.

Robinson refused to give his right name on the ground that it might incriminate him in another court.
